Your sofa buying guide

Buying a sofa is a big investment for your home, so it's vital that you get it right. You want to feel reassured that you have chosen the perfect sofa to love and enjoy for many years to come. To help you, we've devised a little guide which takes you through all the things you need to think about before purchasing your sofa.

The size of a sofa in a store can be very deceptive, what looks a perfect size within a shop could overcrowd your living space. So it's important to measure the dimensions of your room and the allocated space that you think you want your sofa to fit within. You also need to make sure that the sofa will have ample space around it, and that you can get it through doorways and any access points, so it's worth measuring these as well.

A sizeable decision

Consider how your sofa will be used, think about how many people you want the sofa to seat. Do you want the sofa for lounging around on? Do you need this for the main lounge or a secondary sitting room?

Are you currently updating the décor of your home, or are you choosing a sofa to fit within the current colour scheme? If you are in the process of redecorating you may want to construct a mood board to help you select a sofa which suits your overall scheme.

After looking at the demands of your lifestyle, you will be able to determine the use and wear and tear that your sofa will undergo. It is also recommended that you ask for samples of the fabrics and designs you most like, so that you can see how these will fit in with your living space.

The No1 brand

1st to include movement...

Our history spans 2 centuries. For over 130 years, our goal has been simple – to innovate in design and technology, to provide unparalleled comfort and timeless design.

Our aim was to transform the sitting experience. From the original recliner chairs of the 1890s to the revolutionary sofa beds of the 1960s, we have embraced the newest in motion technology to continually develop ranges which provide the ultimate in comfort.

1st to embrace technology

When Parker Knoll introduced their innovative spring system in 1930s, they revolutionised the concept of easy chairs, and delivered a new level of comfort so effective, that it is still in use today.

Progressive seating

1st to advertise the brand

With these exciting new developments in technology and design, in the early 1930s, Parker Knoll delivered another first. The launch of the first nationally advertised brand of furniture in the UK.

The No1 brand

Every single piece we produce is characterised by its quality, distinctive design and innovative technology. These values lie at the heart of our business today, and Parker Knoll has a reputation for innovation, distinctive design and the highest quality. A reputation which has, over many years, confirmed us as the brand of choice.
